S/2014/158:16

Secretary-General recommended the mission should focus on:

¹⁵ Another noteworthy resolution not elaborated upon here is S/RES/2132 (2013) which temporarily increased the troop and police strength of UNMISS in response to large-scale violence in the country. It did not, however, alter any aspects of the mission's general mandate.

¹⁶ While not technically a mandate issued by the UN Security Council, these recommendations by the UN Secretary-General are listed on the mission's website as having had a significant influence on its current mandate (see: http://www.un.org/en/peacekeeping/missions/unmiss/mandate.shtml).

- a. Protecting civilians, with a focus on displaced persons;
- b. Facilitating humanitarian assistance;
- c. Monitoring and reporting on human rights;
- d. Preventing further inter-communal violence;
- e. Supporting the Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD).
